TRANSPORT TO UTRECHT.

The nearest and most convenient airport is Schiphol, however flying to Eindhoven or Rotterdam may be an alternative. (All these airports are less than 1 hour from Utrecht)

The best way to come to Utrecht is to come by train.

From Schiphol there is a direct train connection to Utrecht "Centraal station" (central station).

Trains leave about 4 times per hours from track 1-2 or 3. The Schiphol train station is located in the main entry of the airport.

More train information can be found on the website of the Dutch railway; www.ns.nl

Schiphol → Utrecht Centraal

Arrival Thursday 20 May 2010 about 12:00

The Netherlands

How to get to the NIBI”

From the train station:

The NIBI is reached by foot through a shopping area “Hoog Catharijne” next tot the train station. From the train station walk in the direction of the “Godebaldkwartier”. At the end, near shops called Hema and AH (Albert Heijn) walk through the revolving doors and turn left, in the left corner there is a door with a sign “Trindeborch” . There is a passage behind the Hema,. Take the stairs at your right and ring at the NIBI doorbell . You will find the NIBI on the 7th floor.

By car:

Follow Utrecht Centrum / Station, Catharijnesingel. There are several parking garages in the neighbourhood under Hoog Catharijne. The NIBI is located at Catharijnesingel 54, 7th floor, in the officebuilding “Trindeborch”.
